IOIA REGISTE

VOLUME XI.

IOLA, ALLEN COUNTY, KANSAS, SEPTEMBER 1, 1877.

NUMBER 36.

that the hostile Nez-Perce Indians were encamped in force at Hole-in-the-Rock Stage Station, in Idaho, about 90 miles north of Fort Hall. They had destroy-ed the telegraph line in the vicinity, and stopped all travel over the road. A bushels this year. The average crop of er of friendly Shoshones and Ban-Howard, who was in pursuit of the hos- at 31,000,000 bushels, against 18,000,000

-The hostile Indians, after a halt of several days at Hole-in-the-Rock, to resuperate their stock, burned all the remaining provender and left on the 20th platform denounces the illegal inducupon the appearance of Howard's ad- tion of Hayes to the Presidency; devance. They hovered around long clares that the policy of non-intervenenough, however, to swoop down upon tion in State affairs and the confessed Howard's stock-train, getting off with need of reform in the Civil Service are about 130 horses. They were pursued by an admission of Republican failure three companies of cavalry and over- and a vindication of the Democratic taken about six miles distant, when a party; opposes further legislation skirmish ensued in which one soldier for the especial benefit of corporations, was killed and six wounded; Indian loss and says that Labor and Capital should not stated. The Indians did not appear be left free to adjust their own relations; to be in any hurry, or anxious to avoid expresses sympathy with the laboring a fight. They are supposed to number classes out of employment, but reprobetween 400 and 500, and seem to be bates all resorts to force or intimidamaking their way towards the Crow tion to redress grievances; opposes the country and the Yellowstone.

27th, says that the hostiles had appear- Louis platform. ed in Greser Basin. On the 24th they struck a party of settlers, killing The Pennsylvania Railroad Company were subsequently released. The Indians were under command of Joseph, Looking-glass and White Bird.

A grand Indian council is to be held pose of quieting those warriors who have not yet joined Joseph's band, but it is feared might be easily persuaded to do so. About 100 Chiefs and head men so discovered a second and smalle satellite to the same planet, but will need further observation to fully confirm this. This discovery is considered by astronomers as among the greatest telescopic achievements of the century.

selidated. All earnings are to be pool-

President Hayes and party were at Mount Washington on the 20th. Pub-

The coal miners' strike in the Lackawanna, Lehigh, Luzerne and Wyoming mated at from 25,000 to 30,000. The ing State election. strike at present is founded upon a demand of a restoration of May wages, or an advance of about 25 per cent. on present wages. The operators have Allen, just as she was preparing to leave offered to restore May wages should the Memphis on the 21st, caused by the blowing present price of coal be maintained until out of her safety-valve. A number of pasptember 1. This offer does not seem to be satisfactory, and has been rejected. No serious troubles have yet occurred, but a collision is imminent at any time, and a large police and militia force are constantly on guard.

fic Railroad, in their annual report, give a statement of what they ask from Congress. They propose an open highway, 1,400 miles in length, from Fort Worth to San Diego, which with the san distribution of t to San Diego, which, with the road now At Omaha, on the 20th, during the preva completed, shall be under Government lence of a thunder-storm, a row-boat on the control. Last winter political river, containing a party of five persons, was disputes prevented the considera-stantly killed. Mrs. Heger sprang from her tion of their project, but they hope to gain favorable consideration at backward into the stream and was swept out next winter's session. They propose of sight. The remainder of the party, one to limit the Government's liability to man and two women, drifted safely to the $2,500,000 per annum, for which a first mortgage is offered upon the road and 18,000,000 acres of land. Governbeing destroyed. ment bonds, bearing 5 per cent. intermile of road constructed, $5,000 per mile to remain in the treasury of the United States. It is a private enterprise, they say, designed to secure the people, without cost to the Gevernment, a national highway—the construction of which at this time is believed to be a field for the employment of the surplus population. The recent discovery of coal mines, and the devel-

CURRENT EVENTS in progress most of the time since. The Pendleton and Gen. Thomas Ewing were the improvement has cost over $4,000,000, A dispatch from Salt Lake, 20th, said and is the most important one on Mississippi above New Orleans.

The wheat crop of the States of Ohio, these States is about 42,000,000 bushels. nocks had gone forward to join General The Minnesota wheat crop is estimated bushels last year.

The Pennsylvania Democratic State Convention was held on the 23d. The increase of the standing army, and re--A telegram from Helena, Mont., affirms the financial plank of the St.

seven men and taking prisoners have published a notification to all partwo women and one man. The captives ties having claims against them for goods destroyed by the mob at Pittsburg, to put their claims into the hands of the attorney of the Company and they will be presented to the authorities of Allegheny County without expense to at Spokane Falls, Idaho, for the pur- the claimant, the county, it is held, being responsible for the losses. The aggregate value of property destroyed in Pittsburg is about'$6,000,000.

The Chicago Inter-Ocean recently addressed a circular letter to the various Members of Congress, asking them to indicate their position on the subject of remonetizing silver, and received re-The Western Union and Atlantic and plies from 197. Of these, 131 favor re-Pacific Telegraph Companies have con- pealing the law of 1873 and restoring the dollar of the fathers to its old place ed, extra offices abolished, and former in the coinage, 15 remonetizing with rates restored between competing conditions attached, 18 oppose remonetizing, 31 are undecided, and 2 decline to answer.

Commissioner Raum has recently lic receptions were tendered them at been looking into the practice of nepo-Rutland, Brattleboro, Windsor, and tism in his department, which has hereother towns in Vermont. The Presi- tofore been quite prevalent. An order dent declined an invitation from Gov. has now been issued forbidding Col-Connor and Senator Blaine to visit lectors to employ more than one person Maine, on account of previous engage- of a family not their own, and to appoint not more than one relative each of their own.

The Anti-Administration Republican Valleys of Pennsylvania threatens to of Ohio have issued an address, recom become general, the total number of mending all in sympathy with the movemen at present locked out being esti- ment to abstain from voting at the com

MINOR NOTES.

A panic occurred on the steamer Phil. engers jumped overboard, and others from the boiler-deck to the lower deck, among them Miss Ella Lapaugh, an Eastern news paper correspondent, who was severely in-jured. None of the others were hurt.

The Lakeside House, a summer hotel o the Third Lake, Madison, Wis., was burned on the morning of the 21st. The contents of The Directors of the Texas and Paci- the house were all removed in safety. About seat, threw out her arms frantically, fell being destroyed.

The ninth annual session of the Nationa

Board of Trade was held in Milwaukee, beginning on the 21st.
The United States revenue officers in Ken tucky have recently been making desperate efforts to break up illicit distilling in that State, which is said to be quite prevalent. A number of serious collisions have occurred.

Over 100 arrests have been made.

The body of a man supposed to be J. H. Mackey, of the firm of Lewis & Mackey, lawyers, Brooklyn, N. Y., was found in the woods near Newport, Ky., on the 19th. The woods near Newport, Ky., on the 19th. The lecting the wounded. Over 100 arrests have been made.

leading speakers.

A dispatch from Alexandria, Egypt, 23d, says: The French man-of-war Correze has passed Aden, with cholera on board. Fifty of the crew are dead, and 130 are still sick.

The Catholic Colonization Associate St. Louis, at a meeting held on Sundar passed Aden, with cholera on board. Fifty of Kansas as the home of its colony. John Wesley Hardin, a former notorious Texas desperado, who is said to have committed 27 murders, the last of which, so far as known, was the killing of the Sheriff of e County, was arrested at Pensacola, Florida, on the 24th, on a requisition from the Governor of Texas. He had lived for some years in Florida under the name of John Swain. About twenty shots were fired in making the arrest, and Hardin's companion, named Mann, who had a pistol in his and, was killed. Dr. W. F. Cooper, living near Charlesto W. Va., is under arrest for poisoning his wife. She having been his third wife, and both his former wives having died suddenly under what was considered suspicious circumstances, it is now supposed he poisoned them also, and their bodies will be exhumed and examined for traces of poison. He was a man of violent temper, especially when intoxicated.

The Presidential party returned to Washington on the 24th from their New England our. The President will go to Ohio the first week in September.

Richard Shuck, who was convicted of the murder of a man named Paris, and hanged at Owenton, Ky., last month, is now proven to have been innocent of that crime. He strongly protested his innocence on the gal-It is generally believed, however, that he was implicated in a good many other crimes, and the community where he lived do not seem to feel very badly about his tak-Lieut, Wm. M. English, wounded in Gibbon's recent fight with the Indians, died on the 21st. A shipment of 1,200 barrels of flour wa made on the 24th from Nashville, Tenn., direct to Liverpool, via Port Royal, S. C.

A meeting of Greenbackers, held at New Haven, Ct., passed resolutions calling for the removal of Secretary Sherman.

A party of 20 miners were attacked by several hundred Indians, about 150 miles from Deadwood, on the 21st. The miner naged to partially protect their position by digging rifle-pits before the Indians ter; Hayes, Nemaha, David B. Mercer, came upon them, and thus escaped with the postmaster; Hickory, Butler, Abel D. Stone.

man was shot through the ear, not serio The robbery only panned out about $12, there being no treasure aboard. The People's Bank, of Logansport, Ind.

suspended on the 25th, owing to an insufficiency of funds to continue business. Gen. Grant returned to London from h ontinental tour on the 25th. At Chicago, on the evening of the 27th

Wm. O'Sullivan shot and instantly killed Miss Kate Brannock and then killed himself. O'Sullivan was about 30 years old, sexton in St. Jareth's Church, on the West Side, and had been paying his addresses to the murdered woman. Miss Brannock was about 23 years old, well educated and highly respected. It is not known what impelled O'Sullivan to commit the awful crime, as his relations with Miss Brannock had been entirely cordial, so far as known. Mrs. J. E. Jepson, living at Easton Leavenworth County, Kansas, was fatally burned on the night of the 26th while en leavoring to light a fire with coal oil. She died in great agony at 8 o'clock on the following morning.

The twentieth biennial conclave of the Knights Templar of the United States was held in Cleveland, commencing on the 27th. There was a very large attendance of visit ing Knights.

David Heilman, residing three miles south of Millersburg, Ohio, had threshed his grain, consisting of 90 bushels of wheat and 300 bushels of oats, and, not having any granary, stored it in the loft of the dwelling, which was a log structure. At 4 o'clock on the morning of the 26th the joists under the grain gave way and the whole pile came down in a moment, instantly killing Mrs. Heilman and three children, who were asleep. Mr. Heil-man barely escaped with his life. His other

At St. Paris, Champaign County, Ohio,o At St. Paris, Champaign County, Ohio, on the 27th, Louis Dash, an intemperate shoemaker, cut his wife's throat with a razor and then severed his own jugular vein. He was under the influence of liquor at the time of the murder. Two children, axed 10 and dashed against a rock with such force as to dashed against a rock with such force as to of the murder. Two children, aged 10 and 12 years, were sleeping in the room at the time, and were awakened by the struggle, and gave the alarm. Three road-agents paid a visit to Dead wood on the 27th. They were recognize and arrested, but not without a fight in which an officer received a bullet through the arm and one of the desperadoes was fatally wounded.

Ben BeBar, the well known actor, died a his home in St. Louis on the 28th. He had

THE EUROPEAN WAR.

A Constantinople special, 21st, says the Porte has ordered the immediate concen-tration of 50,000 militia of the second class at Adrianople, Sofia and other points near the scene of operations. The official Rusthe scene of operations. The omeiat Russian Press Agency authorizes the statement to be published that the Russian losses in the two battles before Plevna were from 8,000 to 10,000 men, half of whom were killed or seriously wounded. About 5,000 are in hospitals at Sistova, Simmitza and Turnu-Masurell. Of 200 persons attacked to and discovery of coal mines, and the development of rich agricultural and mineral lands upon the line of the road are referred to as reasons for the opening of this great Southern highway.

Stack Foster, colored, who was charged with murdering his father-in-law, near Cortland, Ala., recently, fled to Memphis. On the 23d an attempt was made to arrest him under a requisition. He ran from the for five days, made the most heroic charges upon the Russian fortifications, and several tracking army, the case of the Mississippi at Keckuk, Icova, was formally opened on the 23d. The case of the Mississippi at Keckuk, Icova, was formally opened on the 23d. The case of the Mississippi at Keckuk, Icova, was formally opened on the 23d. The case of the Mississippi at Keckuk, Icova, was formally opened on the 23d. The case of the Mississippi at Keckuk, Icova, was formally opened on the 23d. The case of the Mississippi at Keckuk, Icova, was formally opened on the 23d. The case of the Mississippi at Keckuk, Icova, was formally opened on the 23d. The case of the Mississippi at Keckuk, Icova, was formally opened on the 23d. The case of the Mississippi at Keckuk, Icova, was formally opened on the 23d. The case of the Mississippi at Keckuk, Icova, was formally opened on the 23d. The case of the Mississippi at Keckuk, Icova, was formally opened on the 23d. The case of the Mississippi at Keckuk, Icova, was formally opened on the 23d. The case of the Mississippi at Keckuk, Icova, was formally opened on the 23d. The case of the Mississippi at Keckuk, Icova, was formally opened on the 23d. The case of the Mississippi at Keckuk, Icova, was formally opened on the 23d. The case of the Mississippi at Keckuk, Icova, was formally opened on the 23d. The case of the Mississippi at Keckuk, Icova, was formally opened on the 23d. The case of the Mississippi at Keckuk, Icova, was formally opened on the 23d. The case of the Mississippi at Keckuk, Icova, was formally opened on the 23d. The case of the Mississippi at Keckuk, Icova, was formally opened on th

STATE NEWS.

THE Catholic Colonization Association of St. Louis, at a meeting held on Sunday, the 26th, passed a resolution selecting the State

THERE is to be a change in United States Paymasters in the Leavenworth department. Major Brooke, for many years stationed there, has been ordered to Detroit, Michigan, and Major Tyrrel has been ordered t San Antonio, Texas, while Major Gibson, of the latter place, succeeds Major Brooke.

THE grasshopper has come down on a few fields in the Republican Valley, but no special damage is done yet.

LAST year the tax-levy in Mitchell County was 16 1-2 mills, and this year it is 13 3-4

JOE MORRIS, formerly a resident of Ne-osho Falls, was struck and killed by light-ning, near the residence of Mr. Wm. Stockabrand, Owl Creek, Woodson County, during

THE number of visitors to the museum, the rooms of the State Board of Agriculture, at Topeka, will average about fifty daily. The majority are people from the East, seeking homes in Kansas. Many saw the Kansas display at the Centennial, which induced them to visit the land that yielded such wonderful products. They say that Kansas is all the talk in their respective localities, and that although they had an-ticipated in Kansas a lovely and beautiful country, the realization far exceeded their

A DESTRUCTIVE tornade of wind and hall recently swept over a portion of Sumner County near Belle Plains. Houses and stables were blown down, torn to pieces and scattered broadcast, sacks of wheat, torn to pieces and the corn-fields leveled with the ground. Several persons were injured, but no one killed so far as was known. The wind storm extended on both sides of the Belle Plains and Wellington Road for over a mile in width and two miles in length. The loss of property is estimated at a large

THE following Post-office changes made in this State during the week ending August 18; Established—Dry Creek, Saline County, Nathaniel Macomber, postmas-tron for the Home for Friendless Women; Mrs. Cushing, Mrs. J. C. Doughass, Mrs. J. A. Bullen, Mrs. Mary Alford, representing ages in the sum of $40,000 for the abduction of her child and husband, neither of whom she has seen for a long time. This opens up a new feature in the case, and will tend to make it more interesting than ever. A COLONY of Baltimore workingmen to the number of about 100 persons have selected lands in the neighborhood of Kinsley, Edwards County, on the line of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad, and will emigrate there this fall. This is another strike in the right direction. A LARGE number of armed men from Em pire City, on the 22d, undertook to build a stockade between the rival towns of Empire and Galena, Cherokee Co. The alarm was sounded in Galens by ringing of bells, and an opposing force of about 50 men, with guns and revolvers, collected to prevent proceedings. The mail-coach going to Empire for the mail was stopped and ordered back to Galena. Mayor Webb, of Galena, read a proclamation declaring a stockade between the two cities an obstruction to travel contrary to law and calculated to incite riot and odshed, and called upon the citizens to destroy the same, whereupon the Galena crowd commenced tearing down the tim-bers, and with the aid of coal oil soon had it all ablaze. The excitement ran high. Some promiscuous firing was done, and one or ously. The Galena crowd carried the day, and the stockade is in ashes. The excitement is abating to-night, though about 300 citizens are under arms, ready for any

MR. WOLF and family, of Carbondale man barely escaped with his life. His other children were sleeping in another part of the house and were unhurt.

At St. Paris, Champaten County, Obic on the 17th. The family, consisting of father, mother, and three children, drove out into crush it to a shapeless mass, and life was in-stantly extinguished.

M. O. CULVER, who lives 25 miles west of Wichita, on the Ninnescah, on the morning of the 8th inst., saw a bunch of nine buffalees quietly grazing within a mile of his house. Getting his gun and mounting his horse, he gave chase, and after an exciting ride succeeded in killing one of the mon-sters of the plains. The entire neighborhood was soon on the chase, and the whole num-ber was killed. This is the first buffalo seen been for some weeks confined to his bed by near Wichita since 1873, when quite a number were killed along the Ninnescah.

The Central Branch Boad is to be extended west as far as Beloit, Mitchell County. It will be one of the most important and best paying railroads in the West when it reaches that region—its whole line, for over two hundred miles, being through one of the lovellest and most fertile regions under

A few weeks ago a boy in Lancaster, A few weeks ago a boy in Lancaster, Pa., fell between the bumpers of a moving train, but his pantaloons catching on some portion of the car he was held suspended over the rail without injury until the train stopped, when he was released. Had the cloth of his trousers been poor staff the lad would have been killed. This incident shows the advantage of the salvantage of t

A BLOODY STORY.

Correspondence of the Chicago Tribune. LAWRENCE, KAN., August 21.—When the Kansas editorial excursionists to the Rocky Mountains had climbed to the klocky Mountains had climbed to the summit of the Sangre-de-Christo Range, by means of the wonderful Denver and Rio Grande Narrow-gauge Railway, and when thay had gathered for a little rest about one of the babbling springs just over the "divide," attention was called by Judge Hallett, a member of the party to a group of preks some disparty, to a group of rocks some dis-tance down the valley, named, presum-edly from their shape, him and his horse by his side; and the next day another would be found, many miles distant, under exactly similar cirmiles distant, under exactly similar cir-cumstances. A rifle-shot would be heard in the vicinity of a mining-camp, and proper investigation would reveal the dead body of some companion miner, herder, or other attache of the camp, who had wandered away, carelessly or upon some errand. After nine of these murders had been discovered, it was noticed that

EVERY VICTIM WAS AN AMERICAN, although the Territory at the time con-

soon left the Gulch in hot we'll courtesy and walk on a piece, and pursuit of the murderers. Their trail I'll say to Julia, 'Did you ever see such drawn curses upon all Americans, boasted of the number he and his brother had killed, and, while regretting his own untimely departure from the field of action, was in some degree con-tent to leave the rest of the hated race ful brother. The wounded Espinosa dead, and he was tired of the business, had used a hypodermic syringe, but, and would transgress no more provided the Governor would proclaim his par- which he could not insert into the flesh don on or before a certain date. Of course no notice was taken of this proposition, and very soon the killing began again, fortunately soon to be ended in hole into the flesh, into which he would

Col. E. W. Wyncoop, now of Denver, was then commanding Fort Lyon, Southern Colorado, and had detailed Lieut. Baldwin, of the Colorado Volunteers, with a squad of men, to escort a Government train to Fort Garland, across the Sangre-de-Christo Pass. On his return, Lieut. Baldwin discovered, near the summit of the pass, THE DEAD BODY fallen timber. But, after a haff-mile's stealthy progress, the party came to a sudden halt at signals from Autabees. There, about fifty yards away, in a small clearing, could be seen in the act of cutting meat from a quarter hanging to a limb. Autabees thrust his rifle through the aperture which had revealed the murderers, and fired.

ESPINOSA SUMBER TWO

-for he it was lesped high into the air, and then fell. But, quickly regaining his feet, he sprang to his rifle, shouting to the boy, in Spanish, "Run, Manuel! The Americans are on us!" the boy with one shot.

Espinosa's head was put upon a pole and carried to the fort. Manuel was buried where he fell. Thus ends one of the most terrible of all true stories of

THE Amana Society, Iowa County, Iowa, own 28,000 acres of land in one body, on which they have invested in provements nearly $2,000,000.

PUNGENT -PARAGRAPHS. A TWO-FOOT RULE: Keep your feet

PERSONAL—Sitting-Bull, my dear boy, all will be forgiven and the past buried, if you will but return to your be-reaved friends.—Uncle Sam.—Chicago

A DOCTOR asked a bachelor dry-goods clerk if his health continued good during the heated term, and the clerk replied, "Scalp of Mohammed! you don't expect a fellow to get up any gilt-edged cholera or any thing on boarding-house toast and fried liver, do you?" The benevolent doctor sent the destitute clerk a peck of cucumbers.

in the affirmative, and the youngster continued: "Did he drink whisky or get killed!" The boy though there was but two ways of dying in Bismarck, by whisky or murder.

It is a strange thing to see a city chap at a country party, but he was there, and in his conversation with one of the prettiest lasses ventured to inquire: "Were you ever at a watering-place?"
"Oh, yes," replied she, "I live right at one." "Indeed!" exclaimed he, growing interested, "where might it be?"
"Oh, just out here a little way," was her innocent reply, "my father keeps the railroad tank!"

"WHAT kind of house will we play?" ked one little girl of another. "Oh,

Death in Life-An Opium-Ester's Story.

was

HUNG TO A TREE,
and left for the fowls of the air to feed upon.

From a few days after the hanging until many months had elapsed, murders of the usual kind were of frequent occurrence. On one occasion the Governor of the Territory received a letter from the surviving Espinoss, in which the latter stated that he and his brother had once been deeply wronged by some had once been deeply wronged by some had once been deeply wronged by some had killed or assisted in killing twenty-had vowed vengeance upon the whole race; that he had killed or assisted in killing twenty-had over the dead, and he was tired of the business, and would transgress no more provided the Governor would proclaim his par sylvars old, and began take morphine ago, because whisky did not satisfy him. "That," the in good taste to dine at noon in calicular to That, "said he to a reporter of the World, "had a splendid effect on me, made me lively and ambitious, and gave me an amount of happiness I can not express to you.

It transformed me at once. I became strong and independent. Nothing was too hard for me to undertake. I speculated and made lots of money. At the end of two years my sufferings began."

He went to a lunatic asylum, but could not be cured. He soon went up to 45 grains a day, and began taking it by injection, for it had ceased to have any effect if taken through the mouth. He had killed or assisted in killing twenty-head, and he was tired of the business, and would transgress no more provided the Governor would proclaim his par which the area of the world, "had a splendid effect on me, made me lively and ambitious, and gave me an amount of happiness I can not express to you.

It transformed me at once. I became as later? With plenty of such proclaim shipped on and onf, one may always be presentable at any time of day, and according to our notion a a lady who does her own work is always too hard for me to undertake. I speculate the could not became a later? With plenty of such proclaim shipped on and one.

It was a plendid ef phine about seven years ago, because whisky did not satisfy him. "That," said he to a reporter of the World, "had a splendid effect on me, made me lively and ambitious, and gave me an amount fear of the next world. There is nothfresh meat, and when it is offered to him will devour it with apparent relish. He will also drink milk with avidity, and

WHEN you see a pretty girl putting on a postage-stamp, don't you wish you were George Washington?

PERSONAL—Sitting-Bull, my dear boy, all will be forgiven and the past boy, all will but return to your be-buried. If you will but return to your be-buried. of the family, great or small, br daily his special offerings of bright and peace. Then, for at least a si fraction of every working-day in busy, restless world, should every an edly from their shape,

"THE "ANVIL ROCKS."

It was from this group of rocks, as an amble and the state of the famous Espinosa. Mexican outlaw shot and killed, with no other purpose than to shoot and kill, so many innocent travelers. The story is still an occasional startler to the reflective old settlers of Colorado, and the story is truly terrible enough in all its details to startle the most disinterested, they whether resident in Colorado or thouse ands of miles therefrom. It is as follows:

From time to time, all through the sective ad anautiful ditheir dead body of some travelers, pressure and anautiful ditheir in whether the state of the fat of the land or with only a "dinner of herbs," it is almost a sacramental feast. Heaven of great independence and erectness. Ax ingenuous youth returned to his lodgings a few nights since, in a state of great independence and erectness. The story is truly terrible enough in all its details to startle the most disinterested, whether resident in Colorado or thouse and so miles therefrom. It is as follows:

From time to time, all through the sective year 1863, parties of troops or travelers passing through the south-central portions of Colorado would come upon the dead body of some traveler, lying as it fell, with horses or team straying some where in the vicinity, and with no apparate at the property of the place. A little boy not three years old said to a gentleman answered in the affirmative, and the youngster of the day for rehearsal at the board, and the children are suppressed by that aggravating maxim, "children should be seen and not heard," or cold water is dashed upon their continued: "Did he drink whisky or attempts at cheerfulness by the atmosphere of the fat of the land or with only a "it is spread of the fat of the land or with only a "it is spread of the fat of the land or with only a "it is spread of the fat of the land or with only a "it is spread of the fat of the land or with only a "it is spread of the fat of the land or with only a "it is spread of t ance be laid aside, quarrels forgotton and stormy tempers quieted, and each should shine at his best in cheerfulness and love, being so contented to sit down together at the same board, that whether it is spread of the fat of the land or with only a "dinner of herbs," it is attempts at cheerfulness by the atrocious command, "Let your victuals stop your mouth!" Let us revise the Darwin theory and "progress backward" until we turn again to sponge and polypii, before we degenerate into this system.

this system.

But we digress. Eight o'clock is a reasonable breakfast hour for all concerned. Then there is still ample time for the children to get to school, and if we have worked an hour or two previously our appetites are so much the sharper and we are ready for a rest. Genteel society would deem it a hardship to breakfast before ten, but this paper is not addressed to them.

It is another absurdity to eat our heartiest meal in the middle of the day, perhaps while the work is but half ac-asked on the suit brought against Mr. Williams on the part of the whites will be conducted by Col. Wilkins, Indian Inspectors, assisted by Capt. Wilkins, Indian Inspectors, assisted by Capt. Wilkins, Indian Inspectors, assisted by Capt. Wilkins, Indian McKee by the Government for damages accruing from his complicity with the St. Louis Whisky Ring, Howard's aid-de-camp.

Prof. Hall, of the Washington Naval Observatory, on the night of the 16th discovered a satellite to the planet Mars, Its time of revolution is about 30 hours and its distance between 14,000 and 15, 200 miles. Prof. Hall thinks he has also discovered a second and smaller in cerimes therein alleged, no defense is not addressed to them.

The missourity to eat our beat and head men of method and the seeped with the loss of noly one man killed after a fight lasting four hours. The Indians stampeded all heir stock and left during the night.

The Missouri River aligns the Government for the whites will laim McKee by the Government for damages accruing from his complicity to eat our beatward to them.

The Missouri River aligns the Government for the whites will laim McKee by the Government for damages accruing from his complicity to eat our beatward to have beautiful and heir stock and left during the night of the day, potential and heir stock and left during the night of the subject of the pursuit of the murderers. Their trail was found, and followed until, with a long-range rifle, one Mexican was picked off his horse. The other managed to make his escape. The wounded man was recognized as belonging to a family named Espinosa, residents of Southern Colorado. He breathed long-drawn all American was provided in the play it; what do you say?"

I'll say to Julia, 'Did you ever see such has earned a night's repose; 'then comes a quiet season of blissful languor, when mind and body languor, w comes a quiet season of blissful languor, when mind and body, too sluggish to labor, can only tial if desired, and with but little trouble, with cold meats, hot drinks, etc., and dinner at five o'clock or there-

We are aware that many ladies who The awful effects of opium-eating are described by Henry L. Sanford, an occupant of the New York Tombs. He is 28 years old, and begun to take morphine about seven years ago, because the in good taste to dine at noon in cali-hole into the flesh, into which he would insert the syringe and inject the morphine. During the last two years he has taken over 60 grains a day, and has often taken over one dram, equal to 5 grains of opium. He is in jail for stealing medical instruments, which he disposed of to purchase the poisonous drug, and he describes his sufferings thus: "If I wasn't so helpless, I'd soon be out of this hell I'm in. I have no fear of the next world. There is no such place anywhere. It shows up in its worst forms the "fast and flash" American trait. A little over a year ago the site of this swarming camp was a part of the howling wilderness. To-day there are along the streets, and up and down the gulches, within a mile, over 10,000 people. Here is a city of 4,000 inhabitants, with a floating population of 2,000 more. About 1,500 houses and huts, and hundreds of tents up the hillsides, an acade-There is no such place anywhere. It floating population of 2,000 more.

Deadwood in Brief.

About 1,500 houses and huts, and hundreds of tents up the hillsides, an academy, church, two daily newspapers, four banks, twenty lawyers, physicians, dentists, artists, club-houses, theaters in full blast every night, the streets throughd with speculators, tramps, and hummars. fear of the next world. There is nothing in this for me. For over two years I have been dead. There is no blood improve his opportunity to capture the murderer. Fortunately he had with him an old scout and guide named Autabees—one who was not excelled in his peculiar line in all the mountains. Under the guidance of Autabees, who soon found the murderer's trail, the troops started in pursuit. The trail led up the mountain-side, and was rendered obscure by the presence of much fallen timber. But, after a half-mile's stealthy progress, the mark world. There is nothing in this for me. For over two years I have been dead. There is no blood in me. I can eat nothing, and that which would keep life in me I can not get. Even when asleep I have no rest. I would have up, covered as I am with a cold perspiration, that it is but a dream, but the effect of it makes my desire for morphine a torture. I would kill my own father in a minute if I could get enough for one dose. When the desire comes on me I would not exchange size comes on me I would not exchange rid of your money. They have even got